Introducing The James Cancer Diagnostic Center

At The James, we understand that cancer is a complex disease that when detected early has more opportunities for successful treatment and cure. That's why we have opened The James Cancer Diagnostic Center. Our experts provide patients who may have cancer with direct, expedited access to diagnostic testing. The center offers a first step in determining each patient's specific type of cancer delivered by the experts who study and treat cancer every day.

To make a same-day or next-day appointment, visit cancer.osu.edu/diagnosticcenter or call 800-293-5066.

GAME NOTES

- No. 4 (CFP) Ohio State makes its fourth consecutive Big Ten championship game appearance, and sixth overall, Saturday with a 12 noon game against the No. 14 Northwestern Wildcats at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.
- The game will be nationally broadcast on FOX and it will be played in front of no more than 2,000 family members of players, coaches and program staffers as each team was allotted 1,000 tickets for such distribution.
- Ohio State's 5-0 record includes a 42-35 victory over No. 12 (CFP) Indiana, the second-place team in the Big Ten East with a 6-1 record. Ohio State led 28-7 at halftime and then 35-7 before a talented IU quarterback/receiver combo elevated onto an uncommonly good wavelength for three second-half scores.

- Three Ohio State games were cancelled this year because of COVID-19 concerns/protocols: by Maryland (Week 4), by Ohio State (Week six prior to Illinois game) and by Michigan (Week 8). Northwestern lost a game at Minnesota in Week 7 (Dec. 5).
- Ohio State is 4-1 in Big Ten title games, including four consecutive wins.
- Ohio State ranks second in Big Ten Conference history with 38 Big Ten championships. The team has won 10 championships in the 2000s, with only Oklahoma's 13 in front of Ohio State. That total includes titles four times in the last six years.

THE SENIOR CLASS

THANK YOU SENIORS!

With the cancelation of The Game with our rival Dec. 12, our Ohio State football seniors were unable to take the field for their finale performance inside the historic Horseshoe.

As the Buckeyes prep for the 2020 Big Ten Championship game vs. Northwestern, please take some time to watch videos submitted by their parents to honor the commitment to the Scarlet and Gray over the last several years.

BUCKEYES ON THE FRONT LINES

LAUREN "TAZ" ROBERTSON

Former Ohio State women's soccer goalkeeper Lauren "Taz" Robertson has made the transition from defending the Buckeyes' goal to protecting her community. The Buckeyes' career shutouts leader is currently serving the San Diego, Calif., community as a deputy sheriff.

Robertson is one of a nearly a dozen former Ohio State student-athletes who we caught up with this summer who are on the front lines working hard during this global COVID-19 pandemic. Like the other former Buckeyes, Robertson, who graduated with a degree in psychology in 2011, believes her time as a member of the Buckeye women's soccer team has helped prepare her for a life in law enforcement.

How did Ohio State and athletics prepare you for what you are dealing with?
"Ohio State Athletics prepared me for law enforcement in many ways. My partners and I are a team and we have to trust each other and work together in order to not just succeed but to stay safe. Being able to incorporate training I learned also keeps me active and fit to prepare me for duty."

What has this pandemic been like for you?
"It's been an interesting experience. Even though a lot of things are changing for the public, my job remains the same. I still respond to calls and go where we're needed. Of course during our medical calls we take all the precautions by wearing masks and gloves, but again, safety is already a big part of the job.”

What encouraging words would you say to others on the front lines?

“Keep working hard and stay safe. We are all here to support you.”

How can we help?

“Be supportive of first responders not just during this but as we get back to normalcy, too.”

“TAZ” ROBERTSON - BACK THEN AS A BUCKEYE

A native of Mission Viejo, Calif., Lauren “Taz” Robertson finished her career as a four-year starter in 2009 before helping the Buckeyes to their first College Cup appearance in program history in 2010 ... drafted in the fifth round of the 2010 Women’s Professional Soccer (WPS) Draft, Robertson’s career goals-against average of 1.03 ranks second all-time at Ohio State and her 283 career saves are the third-most in program history ... a Third Team All-Great Lakes region and Second Team All-Big Ten selection, Robertson posted one of the most dominant seasons in program history in 2009, recording an Ohio State record 12 shutouts and a 0.63 goals-against average, the second-best in Ohio State history ... the 29 career shutouts posted by Robertson are the most at Ohio State and the second-most all-time in the Big Ten.

Powered by passion.

Passion: It's not merely the spark that lights the flame — it's also the fuel that feeds the fire. Passion is at the very heart of motivation, while a challenging spirit fosters innovation. At Honda, we believe both are necessary for a team to succeed. That's why, for more than 40 years, we've been proud to support those who lead with determination, who view challenges as opportunities and who follow their passions.
